COMMENTS:

RESIDENT FILE REVIEW	YES	NO	N/A
1) Does the owner maintain all records relating to initial resident income certifications, together with supporting documentation?	X
2) Does the Owner/Agent make an effort to determine that the income certification provided by the resident is accurate	X
3) Does the file audit establish that residents are being recertified on an annual basis?	X
4) For mixed (low-income and market units) developments, are there any Next Available Unit Rule Violations?			X
5) Does the file audit indicate that staff needs additional training?		X

COMMENTS: During the file review, the reviewer noticed that there were a hand full of tenants who received monetary contributions (for one or more months) from various agencies. Management correctly included the amounts in the annual income total however the verification for the amounts were in a different section of the tenant file. TSAHC suggests that the monetary contribution/financial assistance documents be kept in the same section as the other income and asset verification documents that support the Income Certification.

If a new household moves in to any of the units with Findings (listed below), instead of submitting the required Corrective Action documents, submit with your response: the application for tenancy, all income and asset verifications, the executed Income Certification, and the 1st page of the lease for the new household occupying the unit.
