Sponsorship Restrictions: TSAHC cannot accept sponsorships from corporate entities whose practices contradict the values contained in our mission to serve the housing needs of low and moderate income Texans. Examples of these entities include, but are not limited to, for-profit credit repair organizations and high-cost financial services providers (e.g. payday loan providers). This policy ensures Housing Connection is in line with TSAHC's mission and purpose stated under law.

Sponsorship participation does not include listing as a preferred lender on TSAHC's online lender search tool for down payment assistance and MCC programs.

Who is Eligible to Sponsor Housing Connection?

- Corporate entities dedicated to affordable housing in Texas
- Texas REALTORS®
- Mortgage lenders participating in TSAHC's home buyer programs

Why Sponsor Housing Connection?

- Help educate the nonprofits that prepare Texas families for homeownership
- Increase your visibility among home buyer education providers and the families they serve
